

Old facility will be renovated

New arena to be constructed next year

By Frank Ryan
Plans have been announced for a new arena and multi-purpose building.

The town council's intention to build a new arena (plus an outdoor rink) at the east end of West Valley Park and renovate the existing Centennial Civic Arena and have them both operational before the end of 1988.

Cost of the new arena is not expected to exceed $1.5 million. In approving the multi-purpose building, council indicated they would consider financing up to $600,000 through debenture in January of '88.

Construction of the two projects will not affect local taxes.

The new arena will be regulation size and will be accompanied by an outdoor rink. It is possible the curling club will also build their new rink at the same location.

The multi-purpose building will provide much needed space for the fire department, library, recreation department and town offices.

Council has established a tight set of guidelines for both projects.

They plan to invite proposals from eight architects and make a decision before the end of the month. Early in January a model will be created for both projects.

Tenders for the arena will be advertised by Jan. 29, and Feb. 5 for the multi-purpose building.

The tender for the arena is to be awarded by mid February with the sod turning planned for March 10.

Council has set Oct. 1 as the completion date.

The tender for the multi-purpose building will be awarded March 31 with a sod turning April 15 and completion by Nov. 1.

The tentative opening of both facilities is Dec. 10 of next year.

"Council has worked hard. It's been a trying decision," Mayor Bob Mayhew said during last Thursday's council meeting.

"I hope everything will go ahead as scheduled," he added.

The number of dressing rooms and seating will be determined later.

It's not known at this time how the December opening will affect arena users.

Last Thursday council authorized financing of the arena project from reserves up to the amount of $1 million. They also plan to seek written commitments for funding from community groups, oil companies and the proposed ID by Feb. 1.

According to figures supplied by Mayor Mayhew, the town's contribution to the arena project will be $200,000.

The Community Centre Society will be asked to contribute $200,000 from local donations.

Other funding will include $200,000 from the community recreation and cultural grant, $150,000 from the County of Parkland (C.R.C. money), $150,000 from the new ID and $100,000 from recreation reserves.

In the meantime council plans to proceed with the sale of the town offices and library. A letter of intent regarding the purchase of the town hall was read in council last Thursday from the Pembina Educational Consortium. No offer was mentioned.

Council also confirmed that an offer had been made several months ago by the Alberta West Central Health Unit.

Council has also established several committees to assist with the projects. These include building, finance, fund raising and public information. Members of the Community Centre Society will be invited to sit on the fund-raising committee.

QCTV to change channels; survey planned

By Frank Ryan
Within the next two months, QCTV will be changing the American network channels in all the communities they serve.

They will be replacing network stations from Spokane, Washington with signals from Detroit, Michigan. This change is being done to increase the subscriber's television enjoyment.

Many communities

already receive two Detroit signals, NBC and PBS," said Brad Trumble, director of programming.

"These centres have enjoyed the two channels for some time now and the response to the programming and time shift has been great. The time shift from Detroit to Alberta is two hours, meaning subscribers will be able to view late night programs such as Johnny Carson at 9:30 p.m.," Trumble said.

"The channels are originating from a larger metropolitan centre, therefore buying power for programs is greater. Many are 24 hour services. We anticipate some exciting new programming, along with the regular network, such as All and Monday Night Football," Trumble added.

The networks from Detroit will occupy the same network channel locations as the Spokane signals. For Drayton Valley users that will be channels 6 and 7.

The change is expected to take place this week (Dec. 14 to 18) in Drayton Valley.

QCTV has also announced plans for a program viewer survey to be conducted during the month of January. The survey will help QCTV determine what the subscriber wants to see in the way of programs.

The Edmonton weather office is forecasting cooler temperatures for this week.

Tuesday should be mainly sunny with highs of 4 C and lows near -10 C.

Wednesday's call is for mostly cloudy skies with a 60 per cent chance of flurries. A high of 3 C and a low of -16 C are expected.

Thursday's forecast is for mostly cloudy weather with highs of 11 C and lows of -11 C predicted.

Friday should also be cloudy with highs edging to 1 C and lows around -8 C.

Opinions

Local businesses have solid support

Businesses in Drayton Valley are quickly gaining a reputation as a reliable service centre.

Despite the findings in a recent chamber of commerce retail survey, that many local residents shop in Edmonton, several businesses in are reporting strong support from neighboring communities.

Some of this out-of-town support has come from Calmar, Thorsby, Warburg, Winfield, Breton, Alder Flats, Buck Lake, Tomahawk, Sabs Beach, Entwistle, Evansburg, Wildwood, Niton Junction and Mayerthorpe.

Added proof of the out-of-town business is evident every Wednesday, when people come into town for the auction market and the farmer's market.

Besides the shopping and the market business that we're used to, there's a lot of other out-of-town business coming out way.

The ranger station at Lodgepole reports that many of their Christmas tree permits are taken out by people from Edmonton.

And, a similar story has been reported by the Fish & Wildlife Office. Out-of-town and out-of-province hunters have been frequent visitors to the area.

To get to their destination, either hunting for a Christmas tree or big game, they likely stopped in Drayton Valley, where they filled the gas tank or had a bite to eat.

Generally, towns like ours gear themselves up for the summer tourist traffic. But, because we are the largest town around, it's nice to see the out-of-town support.

Flooding track great idea, but may cause problems

The recreation department's decision to flood the track south of the high school is a great idea.

We understand the idea came from a member of the RCMP who had seen it done somewhere else.

That's what is so encouraging about any community, when it can suggest something, and it leads to results instead of being ignored.

But, the flooding of the track will create some immediate problems.

First of all, we need some help from the weatherman. SNOW is needed to bank the track. And, some COLD weather would be nice to help make the ice.

Then, there will be LIGHTS. And, proper change room FACILITIES.

Although the high school is just a stone's throw away, it may not be as a-

Frankly Speaking

by Frank Ryan

ble at nights and on weekends.

Last month the soccer people indicated they wanted to build a change room/storage building at West Valley Park. It was rejected by the recreation board.

However, would it be possible to take the $6,000 earmarked for soccer, add some town (taxpayers') money along with some donations and build a facility at the track?

Such a facility could be used in the summer for track and field, soccer and ball and in the winter for skaters.

I'm sure, that if a plea was put out for funds, many of the groups, organizations and businesses in the community would donate to a good community project.

Maybe Al Owen will donate some strand board and the community could add some, nails and a little work to erect a building.

If that's not possible, it would be nice to see a temporary trailer hauled in for the convenience of changing skates and keeping warm.

I'm just like the unidentified RCMP who suggested the idea in the first place. We had a banked speed skating oval in Red Deer that was thrown open to the community, and it was an instant hit.

Eccentric to crassly expensive

Special gifts for those special pets

By Steve Fletcher
More and more pets are awakening Christmas morning to find gifts under the tree.

R&I Pet Supplies employee Doreen Clark says it's surprising the number of people searching for special presents for their favorite dog or cat.

She added she has heard of a lot of eccentric requests, ranging from the mildly eccentric to the crassly expensive.

Clark knows of one local resident who presented her poodle with a gold necklace last Christmas, complete with the words "Sweetpea, 1986" engraved on it.

Then there was the recent visit to the store by a woman who purchased a bag of alfalfa cubes as a gift for her rabbits.

To keep up with the demand, the pet store has been selling special pet stockings for a number of years.

Clark said the stockings — stocked by the store with rawhide bones, beef jerky, balls, bells, shampoo and other amenities — have always been a hot seller.

Another big item that's relatively new on the shelves is chocolate-scented squeaky toys.

"A tremendous amount of collars and leashes" are also sold around Christmas time, said Clark.

She noted that this time of year always seems to bring about an spurring in grooming appointments, as pets get spiffed up for the occasion just like their masters.

The season also sees its share of pets themselves being bought, as Christmas gifts, with guinea pigs, gerbils, hamsters and goldfish as the traditional favorites.

"We always have a lot of orders kept in the back until they're picked up on Christmas Eve," said Clark.

She added that Christmas and Easter are always the busiest times of the year for the store.

Sweetpea models the latest in Christmas wear.

Says South Side Legion

Local boxing club respected throughout province...

Dear Editor,

Recently, we attended the Bronze Gloves amateur boxing tournament for the second consecutive year.

The organizers of the event have once again shown us that your town is an excellent venue for young athletes to participate in our sport. The Royal Canadian Legion's pancake breakfast was much appreciated by all.

Your boxing club is respected throughout the province. Unfortunately, they are not active at the present time, due to a logistical problem which is now in the process of being resolved. We are happy to hear of your donation towards rental of a facility for their use.

To this end, our club is hoping our sponsor, the Royal Canadian Legion, Strathcona Branch 180, will also provide some financial help by way of a grant to the Derrick Club.

The reason we are writing is not only to thank you, but to offer an explanation of our philosophy towards athletes in this sport. The Derrick club also expresses similar goals and aims.

First of all, there are two divisions in the club. The first is for competitors. If an individual wishes to box in competition, he must first of all get in shape. Usually this takes anywhere from three months upwards.

Secondly, he must have a medical certificate. No one in our club spars in the ring unless he has one. At the minimum, he works under trained qualified instructors most months before he gets to spar with clubmates.

When he does spar, the coaches determine whether he is capable of going into competition at a later date. If they're in doubt, we inform him he does not have what it takes. He either quits, or becomes a non-competitor. A non-competitor enjoys the same privileges as the competitor. He follows the same procedure regarding the sparring with club mates. There is no pressure on him to compete whatever. If after a period of time, he comes to us and tells us he wishes competition, we follow up with a coaches meeting which includes his parents. If possible, we have our greatest satisfaction.

Unfortunately, the violent aspect of our sport does remain in most people's minds. Most do not realize the safeguards to prevent injury. All competitors are checked by a doctor before each fight. Protective wear is also of a high standard.

Coaches are obligated by their moral ethics to discontinue a bout if there is any reason to believe the athlete is in trouble or overmatched. This applies to the referee as well. A doctor must be in attendance at all matches.

The Derrick Boxing Club needs support regarding a training facility. Respectfully, with the backing of the council, they may continue to operate what we consider the strongest (under 18 years old) club in the province.

Respectfully submitted,
John Anderson

Enthusiasm shown for upcoming basketball season

By Steve Fletcher
St. Anthony's and H.W. Pickup schools have selected the basketball coaches who will begin preparing for the upcoming season, set to begin after Christmas.

Wayne Tourneur, Gerry Brooks, Dan Cavanagh and Rosanne Lemermeier will be providing sideline inspiration for St. Anthony's four teams.

Tourneur and Lemermeier will coach the girls' senior and junior clubs, while Brooks and Cavanagh will coordinate the boys' side.

Tourneur, in his seventh year of coaching at the school, says putting four teams together at a school the size of St. Anthony's will be an accomplishment.

As for accomplishment on the court, Tourneur said the school is expecting to be competitive with other teams in the County of Parkland league.

The coaches, all of them teachers at St. Anthony's, believe enthusiasm shown by the students will provide the impetus to improve over the previous season's record.

"Last year they worked hard but with no success," said Tourneur.

All four teachers have had experience coaching school ball.

Cavanagh, son of H.W. Pickup principal Colin Cavanagh, is a first-year physical education, math and science teacher who coached basketball during practicum and in Australia.

Brooks is a physical education and math teacher who has coached a variety of sports of the last five years.

Lemermeier, a French teacher, is also an experience

ed coach.

H.W. Pickup is hoping to capitalize on any possible in centricity gained from the success of its senior boys' volleyball team, which won the county championship two weeks ago.

Wayne Rosell and Brian Hay have been named coaches of the junior boys' and senior boys' teams, respectively. A coach has yet to be selected for the girls' team.

Rosell, the school's vice-principal, thinks the future is bright for the team after he held an organizational meeting and 20 boys showed up.

First year teacher Hay is equally optimistic about the seniors' program, noting that a lot of interest has already been generated.

The junior team will begin tryouts this week, while the seniors will have their crack at joining the basketball team after the Christmas break.

The coaches, both with past experience, say anyone interested in assisting should contact them.

Kipling equals Gretzky's performance

Norette Oilers humiliate Westlock team

This was just one of 60 shots the Westlock netminder faced.

Jason Kipling has equalled Wayne Gretzky's five goal performance.

Gretzky scored his five goals in a recent 10-4 decision over Minnesota.

Kipling, also a centre, had five goals and four assists as the Norette Oilers humiliated the Westlock Warriors 13-1 last Tuesday night. It was the first game of a two-game total goal series.

The winner of the Drayton Valley Westlock series will advance to a Dec. 28-30 tournament with the winner of that advancing to next month's Alberta Winter Games in Red Deer.

Kevin Bergquist and Mark Hansen had two goals each in the rout with David Hill, Steven Street, Jason Woods and Leonard Johnson adding singles. Shaun St. Louis and captain Craig Warren also collected four assists.

The Oilers, who outshot the Warriors, 65-17, held period leads of 3-0 and 8-0.

Oiler goalie Dean McDowell lost his bid for a shutout when Shayne Price scored at 11:31 of the third period.

Referee Gord Tuzhar

was busy, handing out 41 penalties. The Warriors made 21 trips to the penalty box and the Oilers collected three power play goals and added a short handed tally.

Nelson's win

Nelson's Atoms girls' team played two games on the weekend, winning both by sizable margins.

The girls' hockey team hosted Wabamun Sunday, beating the visitors 6-3.

Terri Kwiatkowski scored three times for Drayton Valley, with Brenda Carrothers finding the mark twice and Kerry Saumann adding a single.

On Saturday, Nelson's Atoms played in Wabamun and cruised to an 11-2 romp.

Terri Kwiatkowski had a big night with five goals. Other scorers included Kerry Saumann with a pair, Margaret Bennett with two, Holly Plotts with one and Liane Kwiatkowski with a single.

The Nelson's Atoms next game takes place at home at 5:30 p.m. against the Warburg Pats. Panthers.

Boxing club has home

After months of searching the Derrick Boxing Club has found a home.

The club will be located in the old Rocky Furniture store located on 51st Ave. between Bears and the Drayton Valley Restaurant. The first workout will be held tonight (Tuesday) at 7 p.m. All interested boxers are welcome.

Couch Lawrence Duperron isn't sure how many boys will turn out. Earlier in the season 47 boxers had indicated an interest, but the long delay, due to the lack of a facility may affect their participation.

Duperron, who is also coach of the new team going to the Alberta Winter Games next month in Red Deer, says local fighters will work out five days a week if they have to in order to get ready.

Town council has contributed $3,000 to the boxing club and the Elks committed a month's rent. Assistant also came from the Hoyal Canadian Legion and an application has been forwarded to the County of Parkland for some operational funds.

Both clubs make finals

Pee wees, atoms host hockey tournaments

The Drayton Valley pee wees and atoms clubs hosted their annual tournaments on the weekend, with both teams reaching the finals.

In atoms play, Major Janel Whitecourt's team lost to the champion Paul Kings in the quarter final. The teams were evenly matched, with Whitecourt withstanding a third-period rally by Drayton Valley to win the game 5-7.

Clubs from Sylvan Lake

and Lacombe were also involved in the tournament. Drayton Valley's 2-1 record to qualify for the final, beating Lacombe and Sylvan Lake handsily but losing to Whitecourt.

In pee wee action, Drayton Valley's Pile Base Rangers played against Whitecourt in the final and, similar to their atoms counterparts, lost a close game, with 5-6 being the final score.

The Rangers' only loss in the qualifying round was also against Whitecourt.

Clubs from Millwoods and Stony Plain were also represented in the invitational tourney.

Debbie Brisley, one of the parent organizers of the tournaments, said the weekend was smoothly run. She said parents from both the atoms and pee wee clubs worked together to coordinate the event, adding she was pleased with the amount of donations from the community.

Pee wee manager Dwight Kunk said he was also happy with the support provided by community organizations and business and stressed the fact that both local teams making it to the finals was an added bonus.

THE WESTERN Review

Devils lose three games

The Drayton Valley Devils lost games to Lacombe, Rimby and Spruce Grove last week.

The team dropped back to back games to the Lacombe Wranglers and Rimby West Stars by identical 3-3 scores before losing to Spruce Grove 1-4 Sunday night.

Playing at home last Friday, the Devils trailed 5-1 midway through the second before scoring twice before the end of the period to narrow the gap. But the first place West Stars scored four unanswered goals for the third for the win.

Brad Allen, with the opening goal of the game at 6:00 along with Jason Trenchok and Everett Ness, accounted for the Devils' scoring.

The night before at Lacombe, the Devils got goals from Brad Allen, Jeff Krukowski and Sheldon Sullivan in a lousy effort.

Sunday night in Spruce Grove, the Devils managed to get out only 10 players to play. Chad Allen (one goal), three assists, Sheldon Sullivan (one goal), and Jason Trenchok (one goal) provided the fire power.

Coach Harvey Allen says

the problems the club has been experiencing this season have been caused largely by the mid-grade level of many of the players.

The young guys are getting a little discouraged—they're working hard, they're just not concentrating.

He added that his defensive line—devoted mainly of converted forwards—has lately been showing signs of cohesiveness.

Allen staged out the play of scopytic blue-liners Everett Ness, David Williams and Clinton Stippa for their recent efforts.

The Devils have two games at home on the weekend. Hoboken will be here for as 8 p.m. game Friday and Barrhead comes in Saturday for an 8:00 game.

president Helen Deal, who will also sit on the economic development committee says she wants to see the chamber do something with the report. She hopes to get the retail merchants involved in it for them," Deal said.

The recently installed 7 member chamber executive met last week and according to Deal, spent most of the meeting with up committees.

They plan on painting the chamber office before Christmas and the judging of the Christmas lights will be carried out this Thursday.

Deal says the chamber is busy working on their budget. And one of her main concerns is membership. It's a concern everyone has. Maybe there's a lot of businesses that haven't been approached yet, she added.

Band and chorus

Schools together for concert

By Nancy Orlow
Trumpets blowing, drummers drumming, and choral singing.

The bands and chorus from Frank Maddock high school and E.W. Pickup junior high proudly presented their annual Christmas concert last week.

The Grade 8 band opened the concert with a song called "Two Sherry Hoods" and then proceeded to play "Yesterday," the old classic by the Beatles. The last song was the spirited Christmas melody "Joyful and Triumphant."

A brass trio, which wasn't on the schedule, played. It featured Proctor on the tuba, David Boulier on the trumpet, and Charles Jenkins played the French horn.

The junior-senior high school chorus did a snappy bit the song called "The Thing" after the trio finished their presentation. The choral group then went on with a love song that was a big movie hit this year. Somewhere out There from the movie "An American Tail."

Their last two songs were Christmas carols, "Joyous News" and "When I Kneel At The Manger Tonight."

The choral class, which consists of 27 girls and two boys, presented Proctor with a gift for his teaching.

The last to perform was the senior band (grades 9 to 12).

Doing an old traditional Spanish folk song for their opening number was a song by Ritchie Valens, and was made into a hit movie this year "La Bamba."

After the performance of La Bamba the band went on to a "Folk Song Rhapsody." The last song of the presentation was a rock 'n' roll Christmas number called "Jingle Bell Rock."

"I'm pleased; you never know what could happen, but the classes did great. It's a good feeling when a player is struggling and then comes out doing well at the performance," said Proctor.

Songbooks

This week's issue of The Western Review includes our annual Christmas song book.

Unlike previous years, however, additional copies of the song books will NOT be available to groups and organizations.

Opportunity to meet and exchange ideas

By Janet Van Rossum
Regional 4-H specialist

It's time to Pump Up
Our Resources at the 1988
provincial leaders conference to be held Jan. 22-24 in Edmonton.

Are you planning to attend? Is your club leader or assistant leader submitting higher application?

Best conference I've been to. More than met my expectations. Enjoyed meeting other leaders and exchanging information. All are comments from 4-H leaders who attended last year's conference in Calgary.

If you or another leader would like to attend this year's conference and pump up your resources, time is running out to apply. The deadline is Dec. 18 to the regional 4-H office. Apparition forms are in the 1987/88
4-H Provincial Program booklet. These booklets were mailed to club leaders along with the '87 registration package. Application forms are also available at your local district office.

The Northwest Region is hosting the 2-day event this year and about 750 leader delegates from all over the province will have the opportunity to meet, exchange ideas and gain new information. There will also be a few guest delegates from other provinces and the United States.

This year's conference includes sessions on teaching methods, developing communicative skills, orientation to provincial programs, keeping parents members involved, project related discussions as well as other interesting sessions that will pump up your resources and make you a more improved leader.

If you are a 4-H club
assistant or project leader you are eligible to apply to attend this conference. As there is a limited quota per region, make sure you get your application in as soon as possible.

Again the deadline for applications is Dec. 18 to the regional 4-H office, telephone 825 registration line. If you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact our office at 674-6248.

Now is the time to act if you would like to be a part of the 48th Annual 4-H Leaders conference.

Drayton Valley and District Health Complex

Open Letter to Citizens of Drayton Valley General, and Auxiliary Hospital and Nursing Home District No. 77
RE: ACCREDITATION PROGRAM

We are pleased to announce that the Drayton Valley and District Health Complex has received notification that we have been granted an Accreditation Certificate as a result of the survey team's inspection held on July 17, 1987.

The Health Complex was commended for our efforts to comply with Accreditation Standards and for implementing recommendations made at the time of the previous survey.

The survey team were pleased and supportive of a comprehensive facility wide quality assurance program which was developed and implemented since the last survey.

Accreditation is a Certification Program resulting in a snapshot assessment of the standard of care provided by the health facility compared to recognized standards of care throughout Canada. The process involves an on-site review by an external health care body looking for evidence of quality clinical records, staffing standards and professional qualifications of staff.

This obtaining and maintaining Accreditation status is the result of the full support and effort of the Hospital Board, Administration and staff and the members of the Medical Staff.

To all those involved in the provision of health care to the citizens of our district as a standard applicable to Accreditation, we thank you.

Yours truly,
Arnold Jorgensen
Manager

Receives designation

Accounting society recognizes resident

The Certified General Accountants Association of Alberta is pleased to recognize the professional and academic accomplishments of Drayton Valley resident Louis Balen, one of 104 professional accountants admitted into membership at the annual CGA ceremony last month.

The new graduates earned the Certified General Accountant (CGA) designation by completing up to six years of supervised studies while employed in an accounting or finance position in Alberta business industries or university programs. The CGA students are engaged in a broad range of occupations representing every area of the accounting profession.

These new CGAs have been given the honour to be at the leading edge of their profession. Says ETGA president Bill McNamee:

"Having completed a rigorous program of studies backed by practice, work experience, our graduates are highly qualified to assume responsible positions in their chosen area of practice in business, industry, government or education," he added.

County employees attend

McCullagh funeral

By Alma Johnson
727-2512

Several County of Parkland employees attended the funeral services of Maurice McCullagh at Drayton Valley in late November.

The MacRae families have a cousin from Nova Scotia visiting for a while.

Ralph and Colleen Johnson and boys of Bonnyville, were home to visit his parents and brother and family last month.

The Brightwood Cemetery Association held their annual meeting at the home of Chris Watson on Nov. 25. About a dozen members attended. Again a discussion on obtaining more land took place.

The executive board remains the same with Norm Johnson as president and Alice Woloszy as secretary.

Lanny and Donna Reganay and family of Spruce Grove visited at the Stan Woloszy and Glenn Johnson homes recently.

Moon Lake News

Dorleen Banks and family spent a day visiting her parents at Ponoka recently.

Norm and Alma Johnson visited with Dan and Debbie Banks at Sangudo and with Delbert Farrell of Campbell River. B.C. Farrell is Debbie Banks' father and formerly lived at Evansburg.

Restless and Spud Therington took Shane to Sangudo to play hockey Dec. 8. Shane plays for the Evansburg minor team.

While attending a 25th wedding anniversary open house in Edmonton recently Norm and Alma Johnson met a former teacher of Bonnyville school, Bert Kibikowski, who is to be remembered to those who knew her in those early days.

Season's greetings to all my readers and may 1988 be the best for you and yours.

Don't let a fire spoil your Christmas.

- Smoke and gas detectors with COPIE alarm, indicators and lights.
- Overheated cooking oil is the biggest cause of home fires. Put a lid on it!
- Don't overcharge your electrical circuits.
- Is your smoke alarm working? Do you have an escape route planned?
- Don't place space heaters too close to combustible items and practice fireproof safety.
- Alcohol impairment causes accidents of home as well as on the road.

'Little bit of kid in each of us'

We've all been taught not to draw, put our fingerprints or paint on the windows, but Kevin Vickrey has been doing it for years and getting away with it.

Vickrey, owner of Frontier Signs has been busy painting Christmas details on store front windows.

With Christmas just around the corner, Vickrey has been busy painting company windows in Drayton Valley. Last year at this time he was able to do stores in Stony Plain, Rimbey.

United Church service Dec. 20

Drayton Valley United Church Christmas service and their presentation of the Christmas cantata will be held Sunday, Dec. 20 at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Everyone welcome.

And on Thursday, Dec. 14 at 7:30 and 11 p.m. the United Church Christmas Eve family candlelight service will be held.

Evansburg, Entwistle and Drayton Valley, but due to the huge demand here he wasn't able to go to the other towns.

"Animation is an universal language because there is a little bit of kid in each of us," said Vickrey. He finds the kids love to watch him and his assistant, Adriana Monan, paint the character figures "They even help pick the colors to use," said Monan.

Both Vickrey and Monan enjoy doing their "slap art" but they call it and enjoy enhancing the Christmas spirit.

Advocating Human Rights in Alberta

Darren Lund

We congratulate Darren Lund of Red Deer!

On December 10, 1987, International Human Rights Day, we recognized his leadership in supporting human rights in Alberta by bestowing on him the first Alberta Human Rights Award.

Darren spearheads an anti-prejudice group called S.T.O.P. (Students and Teachers Opposing Prejudice) at Lindsay Thurlow Comprehensive High School in Red Deer where he teaches English.

S.T.O.P. was developed by the volunteer efforts of students and teachers at the school. S.T.O.P.'s message is about tolerance. It advocates that all individuals be considered fairly, on their own merits, regardless of race, religious beliefs, physical disability or skin color. The group is continuing its work in the community and among schools by openly discussing the effects of harmful prejudices.

S.T.O.P. is setting an example for people everywhere.

Big Brother, sisters need new volunteers

By Blaney Orleady
Wanted: Big Brothers and Sisters.

Helping a disadvantaged child by caring is very fulfilling and heartwarming.

The children are from single-parent families.

The Big Brother/Sister Association is trying to help these youngsters by offering them a buddy to talk to, do things with and just be there if needed.

The main concern of the association is, that there aren't enough volunteers to help the six to 16-year-old youngsters. They desperately need big brothers.

Since the majority of the children that need a big brother are boys, there is a need for more male volunteers, single or married.

Volunteering doesn't cost anything - only your time and care. Big brothers/sisters are asked not to spend, just give up some of their time.

Teachers, parents or any other matured keep a look out for children who need the help of a big brother/sister. Let the children be aware of what is offered to them.

If interested in becoming a big brother/sister call Don or Gillespie, or pick up an application form at Phillips Realty.

Helen Deal

Strength in numbers says new chamber president

By Steve Fletcher
As the chamber of commerce prepares for a new year, recently elected president Helen Deal is laying the groundwork for what could be an interesting term of office.

As chief spokesman for the local business community, Deal is keenly aware of where the chamber's priorities should be.

Increasing membership and getting more people directly involved in chamber affairs are prime objectives, she said.

Our strength is in numbers, the stronger we are, the more we'll be listened to.

Getting more retailers as members and upping attendance at chamber meetings are two other immediate goals.

Deal believes the chamber must strive to make the value of a membership better known.

"Our seminars for an owner, are excellent. They provide all sorts of self-help for a very little cost."

The quality of the seminars, often coordinated through government agencies, sparked about 15 people to join the chamber in the past year, she noted.

Deal herself is relatively new to the chamber having moved to Drayton Valley only 16 months ago.

Originally from Vancouver, Deal came to Alberta with her husband, who is now divorced in the U.S.

While living in Hinton and running a property management business, Deal joined the local chamber and served a three year term as treasurer.

She said political aspirations were awakened in her when she moved to this province, adding that she has not found out returning to municipal office.

Moreover, Deal, admittedly of the Liberal persuasion in B.C. has since been active in the Tory party in Alberta and was named secretary of the provincial PC riding two weeks ago in Warburg.

Ironically Deal, now working with NAB in its property management division was not the first choice to succeed Marty Prentice as chamber president.

Charm Carroll was set to take over until her husband was suddenly transferred to Oils.

The nominations committee then turned to Deal, who was quick to grasp the opportunity despite the heavy workload.

"It's a time commitment, just to be on the executive,"

she said, adding this year's board of directors is a good group of people who are there basically because they want to be.

Deal indicated she will be relying closely on chamber secretary Karen Kirkwood and Prentice who sits on the executive as past president to help her through the initial stages.

Walk-around stereos

Consumers demand high-quality sound

By Sami Vallevand
Consumers' Association of Canada

If you think that those rule little portable cassette player stereo units are bulk stuff, think again. The versatile personal stereos known as "walk-around" are now popular with people from almost every age group and lifestyle.

Exercise buffs wear them while working out, kids tune out while bus riding and seniors use them to add music to gardening or clothes washing. They are great to take to the game to the slopes or to the office.

According to manulura and retailers, consumers want walk-around stereos that include both radio and cassette functions. They also demand high-quality sound that isn't marred by tape or motor sounds. The Consumers' Association of Canada recently tested 10 popular models.

Good sound in a walk-around depends on two key factors: a cassette player that can faithfully reproduce a wide range of sounds and headphones that are equally accurate. The annoying his-and crackle once commonly associated with cassette recordings can now be virtually eliminated. But the best frequency response in the world won't sound like much when played back through the poor headphones provided with many walk-arounders.

If the walk-around is to be used regularly as a worth investing in rechargeable batteries rather than using throw-aways. It was calculated that using your walk-around for 10 hours a week would renew the cost of a charger and rechargeables in just five months.

For ease of travel, look for a machine with a strong clip that will firmly anchor to belts, waistbands or pockets. Carrying straps leave the unit dangling and free to crash into things. Choose a model that will not seem too heavy while carrying or over long periods of time.

If the purchase of a walk-around is in your future, check with the product information office of the Alberta Branch of the Consumers' Association of Canada. The number is 420-0747.

Mildred and Eric Jonzon

50th anniversary

Friends and relatives gathered at the Elks Club Nov. 21 to help Eric and Mildred Jonzon celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary.

Accompanying the Jonzons at the head table were Jean Perle and Art Andrews, spouses of the wedding attendees. Also seated at the head table were daughters Joyce MacIntosh and her husband Garth and Leona Letourneau, sons Don and wife Yvonne and Ron and Janet Marlin.

Christie Jonzon, granddaughter of the bride and groom, was in a class of recipients.

Following a buffet supper, toasts were given by Art Andrews and Joyce MacIntosh. Telegrams were received from Prime Minister Brian Mulroney, Vicehead MP Joe Clark, Drayton Valley MLA Shirley Cripps.

Le Governor Helen Hanes and Alberta Premier Don Getty.

A beautiful three-tier wedding cake was baked by Mildred Jonzon and decorated by Candy Katsen. Mrs. Jonzon wore a navy blue, emerald green dress with a gold jacket and a corsage of white roses.

The Jonzons were married in Edmonton, Dec. 11, 1937, and have lived in Drayton Valley all the time since. They will live on the original homestead one mile south of town.

Out of town guests from Vancouver, Abbotsford, Vernon, Kamloops and Cranbrook, B.C., Grande Prairie, Calgary, Red Deer, Hinton and Edmonton.

A dinner with music provided by Edwin Starkins. In short, it was a very enjoyable evening.

At Christmas

Hearts kinder, smiles warmer

Rev. L. Wesley Herbert
Drayton Valley United Church

Frosty air, the joy and beauty of carols singing out their message of love and peace, anticipate the approach of another Holy Christmas season.

Yes, holy, because it's God's gift. This is the good news - love came down at Christmas. The eternal, has entered the Temporal; heaven's grace touches earth's concern at every point. It is exciting, it really makes a difference.

In spite of its hectic activity, Christmas is a wonderful season where hearts are kinder, smiles warmer and love is deeper.

The note of joy is struck the Lord is come and Jesus is here! This is the exultant joyous proclamation of Christmas. We are not alone. God is with us. Yes, love came down at Christmas. Love, that's the word. The love that is the ultimate stuff and framework of the universe came down at Christmas.

In the midst of man's imminent destruction stands God's creative renewing power.

The Christmas message is precisely that God is above this planet, not only above but at the centre. God is at the centre. This is our joy and hope.

We can spread Christmas but keep it that we may be kept in it, and hope to bear the cry of the infant and require no help and voice. Christmas happens to you that its joy and hope may possess you fully this Christmas and always.

Infant water beds dangerous

A waterbed may seem like fun, but a fact is it can be a very dangerous place for young infants. Adult size beds with guard rails also pose a serious hazard for infants.

Infants may suffocate if placed on an adult waterbed to sleep. This is because if they are face down on the waterbed their breathing can be impaired by its soft, permeable surface. This is especially the case if there are no covers on the bed. The product safety branch of Consumer and Corporate Affairs Canada advises that adult waterbeds are not intended for adults and it is safer never to use them for infants.

Adult size beds with guard rails should not be used for infants under two years of age. Spacers between the rails and the bed can slip through the mesh, creating a suffocation hazard.

Infants should be put to bed on a firm mattress designed for young children. For maximum safety, they should be placed in cribs or cradles that meet the 1986 federal government safety standards.

Free holiday cookbook available

A free cookbook, Festive Favorites, is now available from TransAlta Utilities.

Just in time for the holidays, this cookbook reprints a popular concept from 25 years ago, when TransAlta then Calgary Power Ltd. produced a series of cookbooks for its customers.

Long after the checkerboard cookbooks had called for their distinctive checkered covers were out of print, TransAlta continued to get requests for them. As a result, the company has begun to update the old cookbooks.

The first in the new series is called Festive Favorites. Other topics to be covered in the next year include entrees, vegetables and

Solicitor general

Wants happy hours banned...

Ken Hestad is on the right track. The Alberta solicitor general wants happy hours banned. He fears discount booze sales on courage heavy drinking and subsequent highway carnage by drunks.

He suspects this is particularly true with after-work happy hours, but admits he has no hard statistics to back up his fears.

He doesn't need them; common sense and observation will suffice. When drinks are offered at a not rate prices for food, restaurant on weekends. Anyone who has sat in a bar through "happy hour" or is a veteran knows this is true and can extrapolate the consequences.

But it's not enough that the government has no more business selling to us. Keepers have "happy hour" prices that are too good to pass up. They're not just for the government; they're for the people.

There are worse things in different from other products. The supply and demand factors that determine availability and prices have little bearing on liquor.

salads, desserts and cakes.

"In many ways, our customers have not changed in the last 25 years," says Cheryl Corbell, TransAlta's supervisor of community relations and responsible for the new cookbook series. "They still want good, wholesome food and they want to get good value for their dollar."

Many residential electricity consumers have realized the value of using small appliances to help keep cooking costs low. Appliances such as electric kettles and frypans and microwave ovens, are energy efficient tools to assist in meal preparation.

"According to a recent appliance saturation survey conducted by TransAlta more than 70 per cent of our residential and farm customers now have microwave ovens," notes Corbell.

That's why Festive Favorites and its successors released companion cookbooks include microwave instructions as well as conventional methods for each recipe.

Festive Favorites and other cookbooks in the new checkerboard series are available from your local TransAlta district office or by calling Corbell at (403) 741-7499.

Also TransAlta will soon be offering a low-cost binder to house the entire cookbook series. The price is intended to cover TransAlta's printing and postage costs.

becoming commonplace.

For people of the home business, that means more competition for available customers and increased pressure to sell them more. If permitted, happy hours will become a more prominent tool in their marketing arsenal.

The drunk driving problem won't go away as long as habitual offenders are encouraged to get drunk more often.

The province has an estimated 82,000 alcoholics and 257,000 problem drinkers. A high percentage of them also drive.

Alberta owns six out of 25,000 people a year in impaired driving, and one out of four people killed in a fatal traffic accident is had been drinking.

Banning happy hours could mean less bar carnage.

Hwy 16X

County okays gas-bar

The County of Parkland is allowing a gas-bar convenience store on Hwy 16X for further development on the road still a possibility.

Plans Nov 23 by both Stony Plain and Spruce Grove chambers of commerce to stop Gil Cook's project were denied later that day by the development appeal board county planning director Court Breckenridge said.

The decision comes after both Stony Plain and Spruce Grove councils passed resolutions opposing development and despite a petition and county meetings jammed with opponents of the project.

It should temporarily end a controversy which mobilized area businessmen in opposition and which saw an earlier appeal board decision challenged in Alberta Court of Appeal.

The final word had opponents resigned yet wondering about the county decision.

The county thing I can understand a how they can approach something with such opposition to it, said Terry Lovatour, Parkland County Chamber of Commerce Association president.

I can understand how someone in an appeal board came against the majority of the population that are against it.

This can't be representing the population that elected them.

PEHDA from northwest Calgary Hwy 16X will divert traffic from their business on Hwy 16.

Allowing the gas-bar midway between Hwy 794 and 80 is only the start of development on the express route, said Karl Koron who lives in the area.

They can't stop the next one and the next one and the next one.

For the amount of opposition to this, for Mr Cook to still get this through, I don't know.

The permit came after the county tried for the past year to form a joint highway development inquiry with Stony Plain and Spruce Grove, said Reece Ken Fuhr.

I think we tried to be fair with it and be fair with those municipalities," he said.

He wouldn't rule out future developments on the highway.

Fuhr said the county hasn't formalized any development strategy for the road. He couldn't say what will or won't be allowed in the future.

We're still interested to meet with the other municipalities and to try and form some policy.

"Hopefully we can work something out on it."

Breckenridge said Nov 25 applicants worried it'll be addressed in a written decision.

When there was some controversy but were on the side of the board's decision, none were given enough time to prepare his bid.

The board considered his bid safe, and the members of residents approved it.

Don't overload

Many gifts today range from appliances to toys and electric power.

Look for the CSA safety mark and read all operating instructions carefully before using any electrically operated item.

Make sure the house is adequately wired to accept the item without the use of a lot of extension cords and so tapes out into.

If you need to use an ex-decision.

A brief look at the petition presented by PEHDA indicated the majority were not ready to endorse Breckenridge said.

Just according to Lovatour. If you go through the petition there's some from all over the county. About half the names come from people living in Parkland he said.

Sales was also considered.

I think I've looked at the record where you have deterioration and deterioration energy you probably have the safest situation you can have on a highway.

Breckenridge said.

The development will remove the less crossing at the intersection.

The median dividing east and west bound lanes will be lowered off prohibiting left turning traffic.

The county agreed to incorporate a widening of the original 16-lane division after a road layout to include one of the four-lane lanes and one of the project.

The county has not changed its computers with some appeal board members want to go property owners.

Extension cords make sure it is the proper size.

To determine the correct size check the nameplate of the electrical product for the ampere rating. Make sure the rating on the product is not higher than the extension cord rating which is given on a label wrapped around the cord.

If the product ampere rating is too high, the cord will be over sized.

County by-election

A by-election to fill Parkland County's Division 8 seat left vacant after the death of Doug Maurice McCallagh, a becoming mixed up with the Drayton Valley municipal seat.

Normally, county council could choose whether or not to hold an election to fill the seat of the term with just eight weeks left until county council meets in January.

But if a by-election is held, it would make for a more timely election.

Sport council donates funds to girls' hockey and gymnastics

The Alberta Sport Council, a non-profit Crown corporation whose mandate is to promote and fund amateur sport in the province, has announced it is providing $9,122.50 to nine amateur sport groups in the Zone 5 area.

This money represents funding to applications from the 1987 third quarter of the Local Sport Development Projects Grant.

Zone 5 is bounded by Athabasca to the north to the south by Leduc Drayton Valley the west by Jasper and the east by Sherwood Park.

The funding will be used in a wide variety of innovative ways to assist in the sport development of local sport groups. Each of the groups went through an application and review process before funding was offered. Drayton Valley girls' hockey received $200 to encourage a new sportswoman to participate in an organized hockey program.

And the Drayton Valley gymnastics club received $1,155 to enable the club to expand their competitive and training program with the purchase of additional apparatus.

The Alberta Sport Council receives thousands of requests a year for financial assistance. Money for approved projects comes from the government of Alberta, Alberta lotteries and private enterprises.

Application deadline for funding under the 1987 first quarter is Jan. 1.

For more information regarding the council's own Sport Development Projects program or any of this quarter's recipients, contact Charlene Norman, Zone 5 coordinator at 963-9156.

I changed my mind!

Instructors Christine Manning (left) and Jackie Kynih (right) help budding gymnast Jerilyn Math with her flip. Math is a student in the Drayton Valley gymnastics club's Skill Development program. Classes are held in the old band room at R.W. Pickup.
